

MOTHER TERESA

“kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are endless”

*Penny Kostoglou
Marita Doukellis*

- She was born in Skopje, in 1910.
- As a child, she was extremely kind and loving.

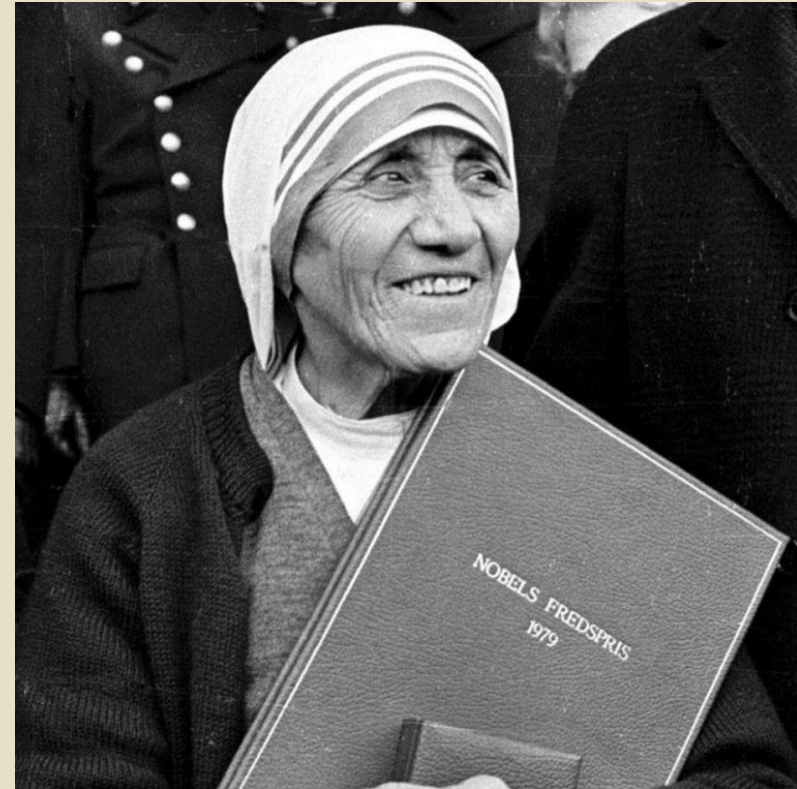

- She took care of the poorest of the poor in the streets of Calcutta.

◦ She helped hungry and dying people to die in peace.

- She won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979 and she offered the money “to feed 400 poor children in India for a year”.

◦ She died of pneumonia in 1997

