

MYKONOS

Archaeological site of Delos

This well-kept ruin is known as the birthplace of Apollo, god of music and truth.

Little Venice

There are plenty of cafes and restaurants here, so grab a table towards the end of the day to enjoy an amazing sunset. Look out for the Mykonos pelicans - an added attraction!

Matoyianni Street

This pretty winding street is the perfect shady place to pick up designer clothing and jewellery, as well as postcards, trinkets and souvenirs of your time in Mykonos.

Church of Paraportiani

This Instagram-friendly Greek Orthodox church is typically unassuming, simple and painted bright white, with a domed roof. One of the best and most pretty buildings to see in Mykonos.

Elia Beach

You'll pay €20 per day for two sun beds and a parasol on this popular beach with crystal clear waters. Eat at the great restaurant, or bring lunch with you.

The Windmills (Kato Milli)
Visit this pretty Mykonos attraction for a slice of history. This site won't fill a day, but it's a nice walk from Little Venice so plan it into your tours of the area.
